Occupational Safety and Health Review Board Sets Fairbanks Hearing

(Juneau) -- The Alaska Occupational Safety and Health Review Board has scheduled a hearing Oct. 30 in Fairbanks to consider challenges filed by employers contesting citations issued by the Alaska Department of Labor & Workforce Development.

Citations are based on alleged violations of state occupational safety and health standards filed by the Division of Labor Standards and Safety.

The Fairbanks hearing will begin at 9 a.m. on Oct. 30 in the Wage and Hour Section at the Alaska Department of Labor & Workforce Development at 675 7th Ave., Station F, and will continue as necessary.

Advance hearing notices are provided to all parties of contested citations. Board hearings are open to the public as required by Alaska statute.

Persons with disabilities and special needs are requested to contact Becky Weimer in Juneau at 907-465-2709 to schedule appropriate accommodations.
