Vocational Rehab's Anchorage Counseling, Evaluation Center Moving to Debarr Road

JUNEAU, Alaska—The Alaska Division of Vocational Rehabilitation's Anchorage Counseling and Evaluation Center is moving to 4600 Debarr Road, Suite 300. The location formerly housed the Anchorage School District.

The move from the current location at 3800 University Lake Drive, near the University of Alaska-Anchorage and Providence Hospital, is effective July 27.

"Relocating our Anchorage Counseling and Evaluation Center will allow us to meet the increased demand of consumers being served at all of our locations," DVR Director Cheryl Walsh said. "All of our staff and their phone numbers remain the same."

The new office on Debarr is accessible using People Mover Route 15 from either the downtown Anchorage or Muldoon transit transfer centers. It is also within two miles of the Anchorage Job Center on Muldoon Road and the Cook Inlet Tribal facility. Fixed bus route 15 will provide transportation for consumers to access the services offered at the new DVR location, Job Center and those services at Cook Inlet Tribal.

Orientation sessions are held every Tuesday at 1 p.m. for Alaskans with disabilities who are interested in applying for services. Call 907-269-2060 for more information.

The Division Vocational Rehabilitation Services is the state agency whose mission is to enable Alaskan's with disabilities to achieve employment.
