AWIB Accepting Nominations for Vocational Educators Awards

JUNEAU, Alaska—As part of its mission to support education and training that leads to employment and careers, the Alaska Workforce Investment Board is soliciting nominations from business and industry for two awards:

- Secondary Vocational Training Instructor/Administrator of the Year Award
- Post Secondary Vocational Training Instructor/Administrator of the Year Award.

Recipients of this award must have made significant contributions toward innovative programs that are improving and promoting vocational technical career education.

Nominees will represent individuals whose programs are directly connected to placement of their students in a training or vocational education program, or apprenticeship.

Nominations, which must come from a business or industry, will be accepted through 5 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 15, by mail, email or fax.
