Workers' Comp Workshops in Bethel, Juneau for new small business owners, employers

JUNEAU, Alaska—The Workers' Compensation Division will hold workshops in Bethel and Juneau to provide information about the Alaska Workers' Compensation Act. The workshops are free and open to the public. New small business owners and employers are encouraged to attend.

"Our staff will discuss which entities must be covered and how the process works," said Mike Monagle, Workers' Compensation Division director. "These workshops are a great opportunity to get more detailed information and to ask questions."
